HAPPENINGS IN AND NEAR WESTERLY

Contracts for Highway Improvements Awarded—Ex-Gov.

Utter to Talk Temperance in Amherst—No Session

of Superior Court Here this Term—Chapman Dahlias

Make Big Hit at Providence Show—Weddings—Closing

Band Concert.

The Rhode Island state board of public works awarded the contract to build a state highway in the towns of North Smithfield and Smithfield to Thomas H. Quinn, his bid for the work being $29,800. Bryan F. Mahan of New London submitted a bid of $28,540, but it was rejected for the alleged cause that it was not in proper form. Members of the board said that Mr. Mahan had contracts for several other pieces of state road and had not yet begun their construction and some members were of the opinion that Mr. Mahan should be given no more contracts at the present time.

Mr. Quinn's bid was accepted with condition that he agree with the board's engineer on the compensation to be received for the grading. The successful bid was at the rate of $2.43 a cubic yard. The section of the road to be built is about 47,520 feet in length. The other bids were: John Brantow, $2.81 a yard, $34,619.20; Bryan F. Mahan, $2.40 a yard, $29,540; Lane Construction company, $2.43 a yard, $33,990; Pocasset Ice company, $2.67 a yard, $33,950; Arthur W. Sterre, $2.50 a yard, $30,590; L. H. Callan, $2.62 a yard, $32,175; Joseph McCormick, $2.70 a yard, $33,240; Ames B. Robinson Sons company, $2.63 a yard, $32,274.40.

Ex-Gov. George H. Utter has declined an invitation to be the principal speaker at the no-license rally to be held in the Orpheum theater next Sunday evening, owing to previous engagement to speak in Amherst, Mass. It is probable that Rev. John G. Dutton, minister of the Broad Street Christian church, will accept an invitation to deliver the address.

There will be no session of the present term of the superior court for Washington county held in Westerly, so Judge Stearns stated at the court in Kingston Thursday. The judge must preside at the court in Newport, commencing Monday. The cases of Chapman and Conway against the town of Westerly and the other Westerly cases on the docket will be continued to the November term. By that time other Westerly cases will be on the docket for trial and there is prospect of a long session in Westerly.

A two weeks' mission will open October 16 in St. Michael's church and continue for two weeks under the direction of the Paulist fathers of New York. The Paulists are strong advocates of Catholic total abstinence.

Capt. Edwin A. Roche, Twenty-sixth United States Infantry, recently returned from the Philippines, and stationed at Fort Wayne, Detroit, is on leave of absence. He is visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Roche, in Pleasant street, Westerly.

While all effort has failed to locate the individual who discharged four barrels of a revolver when on Liberty street, near Stillman avenue, Monday night, the fellow who fired the shots was heard to remark: "Damn you, I'll get you next time."

Edward Dougherty of Stonington and Miss Mary McCormick of Pawcatuck were married by Rev. James W. Cunningham at a nuptial high mass in St. Michael's church Wednesday. Miss Rose McCormick was bridesmaid and John Dougherty was best man.

In the superior court at Kingston, Thursday, Angelo Compato of Westerly pleaded note to a complaint for keeping intoxicating liquor for sale. By agreement Compato is to pay costs of $58 and sentence will be suspended on promise of complying with the law in the future.

Invitations have been received in Westerly to the marriage ceremony of Bertha Irene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Stecher, and Edwin Robinson Davis, in Troy, N. Y., on October 15. Mr. Davis is a native of Westerly, and left here about two years ago for Troy.

At the September exhibit of the Rhode Island Horticultural society in Providence, Otis P. Chapman, Jr., of Westerly, was mentioned among the chief exhibitors and was awarded second prize for general display of dahlias, one hundred bottles. A basket of the Chapman dahlias was selected for special illustration in the Providence Journal.

Westport.—Harbor blues are running quite well and lovers of these dainty fish are enjoying catching them.

Shelton.—Twelve of the local firemen will march with the Eagle hose company of Andover, at Kingston, N. Y., on October 5.

Gulford.—Both the democrats and republicans have nominated Calvin M. Leete of Leete Island, as candidate for first selectman.

Hartford.—Maj. Sidney M. Gladwin and Mrs. Gladwin have returned to their home in Hartford after spending the summer at Haversham, R. I.

Middletown.—The town elections which are slated for Monday next in the city have taken a place second in interest to the vote on the license question.

Norwalk.—Plans for the Columbus day celebration and parade to be held under the auspices of the Italian societies of Norwalk, are rapidly being perfected.

Waterbury.—John F. Murphy, secretary of the Waterbury Typographical union, was elected vice president at the New England convention, held recently in Boston.

New Haven.—J. Quincy Ames, who has resigned the secretaryship of the New Haven Y. M. C. A., was given a complimentary reception Wednesday evening at the New Haven Y. M. C. A.

Hartford.—The committee arranged for a mass meeting of the negro citizens of Hartford, held August 5, completed plans this week for raising funds for a negro loving cup to be presented to Senator Morgan G. Bulkeley.

South Norwalk.—Mrs. Lottie Comstock, a prominent woman of South Norwalk, has brought suit against her husband, William W. Comstock, a wealthy retired officer of the navy, for divorce, alleging intolerable cruelty. She asks for $75,000 alimony.

Suffield.—In the young bird pigeon fly Sunday of the Highland district pigeon club, which started from Fondia, N. Y., to this place, 10 miles, the first place was won by H. Nagler of Springfield, Mass., with a record of 1,112.947 yards per minute, with Thomas Orr of Suffield as fourth with a record of 981.175 yards per minute.

Wallingford.—William H. Newton is in Washington, D. C., to attend the funeral of his brother, John Newton, which will be held from the soldiers' home in that city Friday afternoon, with burial at the soldiers' home cemetery. The deceased was 71 years of age, a veteran of the civil war and an attorney by profession.

Woman's Age.
Woman is like the moon—many phased—and in all her phases fascinating. She is at her best at three ages, according to your personal taste. If you prefer the beautiful woman, she is at her best between the ages of 20 and 35. If your taste is for the woman of sentiment, she is at her pre-eminent between the ages of 30 and 45. If you worship intellect, she is supreme between 40 and 60. If you want all of these qualities, seek out a goddess for goddesses have no age.—David Belasco.

The Quality of Courage.
There are as many different kinds of courage as there are of cavalry horses. There are as many different kinds of cavalry horses as there are cavalry horses of any kind whatever. Almost any man will be a hero given the right circumstances. Almost any man will flunk if Fate springs the psychic combination on him. What I mean to say is that potentially we're all heroes, we're all cowards.—Edward Marshall, in Metropolitan Magazine.

Tantalum Named by Discoverer.
It is said that Eleberg, the Swedish discoverer of tantalum, gave that name to the metal because of the tantalizing difficulties that he encountered while investigating it. It is only recently that tantalum has been obtained in a state of purity. A single pound of tantalum suffices to furnish 23,000 lamps, each of 25 candle power.

Was Not to Be Improved.
There is an antique anecdote, but one so much to the point that it will bear repetition, which throws a sidelight on Mendelssohn's acute criticism. A pupil confessed himself unable to solve a problem in counterpoint—did not know where to put another note. "I am glad of that," was the response, "for neither do I."

Keeping Weeds from the Mind.
If you don't want dull thoughts to come, you must keep them away as I keep the weeds out of my bit of garden. I fill the beds so full of flowers that there isn't any room for weeds.—Daniel Quorn.

Waste of Good Money.
Think of a dinner costing $25 a plate when a shote can be fattened into a 400-pound hog for less!—Charleston News and Courier.

Body and Soul.
Philip Brook wrote: "The care of the body and the care of the soul are not two duties, but two parts of one duty."

Prospect.—Mrs. Emmeline Hitchcock, the oldest resident of this town, passed her 96th birthday on Sunday.

Served His Country Well.

Scipio Africanus was one of the greatest soldiers, save Julius Caesar, in Roman history. He defeated Hannibal and his Carthaginians at Zama, a city of Carthage, on October 19, in the year 203 B. C., and gave to Rome the ascendancy over the then known world.

Keep Close to Nature.

For since his blessed kingdom was first established in the green fields, by the lakeside, with humble fishermen for its subjects, the easiest way into it hath ever been through the wicket-gate of a lowly and grateful fellowship with nature.—Henry Van Dyke.

Severe Operation.

"I never saw anybody that suffered from throat trouble as much as my Uncle George used to," said Mrs. Lapaling. "He had it so bad that finally the doctors had to make an incision in his sarcophagus and remove a part of it."
